THE FIRST EPISTLE OF

Paul the Apostle to the Thessalonians.

CHAP.

I The Thessalonians are given to understand both how mindefull of them Saust Paul was at all times in Thankef-guing, and Prayer: 5 and also how well hee was persivaded of the trueth, and sinceritie of their faith, and conscrito in God.

Aul and Siluanus, and Timotheus, vnto the Church of the Thefia lonians, which is in God the Father, and in the Lorde Iefus Christ:

Lorde Iesus Christ: grace be vnto you, and peace from God our Father, and the Lord

2 We give thankes to God alwaies for you all, making mention of you in our Remembring without ceasing your worke of faith, and labour of loue, and patience of hope in our Lord Iesus Christ, in the fight of God and our Father:

4 Knowing, brethren || beloued, your election of God

5 For our Gospel came not vnto you in word onely: but also in power, and in the holy Ghost, and in much assurance, as ye know what manner of men wee were among you for your fake. 6 And ye became followers of vs, and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with ioy of the holy Ghoft.

7 So that yewere enfamples to all that beleeue in Macedonia and Achaia. For from you founded out the Word of the Lord, not onely in Macedonia and Achara, but also in every place your faith to Godward is spred abroad, so that wee need not to fpeake any thing.

9 For they themselves shew of vs, what maner of entring in we had vnto you, and how ye turned to God from idols, to ferue the liumg and true God,

10 And to wait for his sonne from heauen, whom he raifed from y dead, even lefus which deliuered vs from the wrath to come.

CHAP. II.

In what manner the Gospel was brought and preached to the The falour s, and newhat fort alfo they received it. 18 A reason wrendred botten by Saint Paul was so long absert from them, and also why he was so & firous to fee them.

Cryour felues, brethren, know our entrance invnto you, that it was not 2 But euen after that we had suffered before, and were shamefully entreated, as ye know, at Philippi, we were bold in our God, to speake vnto you the Gospel of God with much contention.

For our exhortation was not of deceit, nor of vucleannesse, nor in guile: 4 But as we were allowed of God to be put in trust with the Gospel, euen so wee fpeake, not as pleasing men, but God, which trieth our hearts. 5 For neither at any time vied we flattering words, as ye know, nor a cloke of co-

uctousnesse, God is witnesse: 6 Nor of men fought we glory, neither of you, nor yet of others, when we might haue bene || burdensome, as the Apostles of Christ. 7 But we were gentle among you, euen as a nurse cherisheth her children: 8 So being affectionarly defirous of you,

we were willing to haue imparted vnto you, not the Gospel of God onely, but also our owne foules, because yee were deare

9 For yee remember, brethren, our labour and trauaile: for labouring night and day, because we would not be chargeable viito any of you, we preached viito you the Gospel of God.

10 Ye are witnesses, and God also, how holily, and inftly, and vnblameably we behaued our felues among you that beleeue.

11 Asyou know, how we exhorted and comforted, and charged eucry one of you, (as a father doth his children,) 12 That ye would walke worthy of God, who hath called you vnto his kingdome and glory. 12 For this cause also thanke we God without ceasing, because when ye receiucd the word of God, which ye heard of vs, ye received it not as the word of men, but (as it is in trueth) the word of God, which effectually workerhalfo in you that beleeue. 14 For ye brethren, became followers of the Curches of God, which in Iudea are in Christ Iesus: for ye also haue suffered like CHAP. V.

Heth I lough God, louth his children, and keepeth hi Commondements: 3 which to the fruthind are light, and not greenous: 9 It first the Some of God, able to four or, 14 and to heare our prayers, which we make for our flues, and for others.

Hofocuer beleeueth that Iesus is the Christ, is borne of God: and euery one that loueth him that begate, loueth him also that is begotten of him.

2 By this wee know that wee loue the children of God, when we loue God and keepe his commandements.

For this is the loue of God, that wee keepe his commandements, and his commandements are not gri. uous.

4 For whatfocuer is porne of God, our commeth the world, and this is the victorie that our commeth the world, euen our faith.

5 Who is hee that ouercommeth the world, but he that beleeueth that Iesus is the Sonne of God?

6 This is he that came by water and blood, cuen Iefus Chrift, not by water one-ly, but by water and blood: and it is the Spirit that beareth witnesse, because the Spiritis trueth.

7 For there are three that beare record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the holy Ghoft; and these three are one.

8 And there are three that beare witnes in earth, the Spirit, and the Water, and the Blood, and these agree in one.

o If we receive the witnesse of men, the witnesse of God is greater: for this is the witnesse of God, which hee hath testified of his Sonne.

10 He that beleeueth on the Sonne of God, hath the witnesse in himselfe; and he that 5c1 eucthnot God, hath made had far, 5cc, ate lee beleueth not the record that God gaie of his Some.

11 A d this is the record, that God hath given to vs eternall life, and this life is in his bonne.

12 Hee that hath the Sonne, hath life; and hee that hath not the Sonne, hath not life.

13 These things have I written vnto you that beleeve on the Name of the Son of God, that yee may know, that yee have termall life, and that ye may beleeve on the Name of the Sonne of God.

14 And this is the confidence that wee have || in him, that if we afke any thing according to his will, he hearethys.

15 And if we know that hee heare vs, whatfoeuer we afke, we know that we have the petitions that we defired of him.

16 If any man see his brother sinne a sinne which is not vinto death, thee shall aske, and hee shall give him life for them that sinne not vinto death. The, e is a sinne vinto death: I doe not say that hee shall pray for it.

17 All varighteonfacffe is fin, and there is a finne not vato death.

18 We know that whofoeuer is borne of God, finneth not; but hee that is begotten of God, keepeth him felfe, and that wicked one toucheth him not.

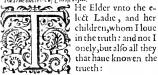

19 And we know that wee are of God, and the whole world lyeth in wickednesse.

Confessing all our former sinnes And that with diligence.

To thanke him for his benefits. Alway distributing, Wherefore to him right joyfully, In Pfalmes now let vs fing.

And that because that God alone, Is Lord magnificent, And eke aboue all other Gods, A King omnipotent.

His people doth not he forfake. At any time or tide: And in his hands are all the coafts

Of all the world fo wide. - And with his louing countenance He looketh enery where,

And doth behold the tops of all, The mountaines farre and neere.

The sea and all that is therein, -Are his, for he them made: And eke his hand hath fall ioned, The earth which doth not fade.

O come therefore and worship him, And downe before him fall, And let vs kneele before the Lord, The which hath made vs all.

He is our God, our Lord and King, And we his people are His flocke and sheepe of his pasture,

On whom he taketh care. This day if yee will heare his voice, Yet hearden not your heart, As in the bitter murmuring,

When ye were in defert. Which thing was of their negligence, Committed in the time. Of trouble in the wildernesse,

A great and grieuous crime. Whereas your Fathers tempted me, And tried me euery way: They proued me and faw my works, What I could doe or fay.

Thefe fortie yeeres, I have been grieued, With all this generation, And euermore I faid they erred

In their imagination. Wherewith their harts were fore cumbred Long time and many daies, Wherefore I know affuredly, They have not knowne my waies. To whom I in my anger fwore,

That they should not be blest, Nor fee my joy celestiall, Nor enter in my rest.

my words in mind thou beare, and to my precepts liften well.

I am thy foveraigne Lord and God, Which have thee brought from carefull thral, And eke reclaimde from Pharaohs rod, Make thee no Gods on them to call.

Nor fashioned forme of any thing, In heauen or earth to worship it: For I thy God by renenging, With grieuous plagues this fin will fmite.

Take not in vaine his holy name, Abuse it not after thy will.

For so thou migh'st foone purchase blame, And in his wrath he would thee fpill.

4 The Lord from work the seventh day ceast, And brought all things to perfect end, So thou and thine that day take reft, That to Gods hefts ye may attend.

Vnto thy parents honour giue, As Gods commandements doe pretend, That thou long daies and good maiest line, In earth, where God a place doth lend.

Beware of murther and cruell hate.

All filthic fornication feare,

See thou steale not in any rate. False witnesse against no man beare.

10 Thy neighbours house wish not to haue, His wife, or ought that he calth mine, His field, his Oxe, his Affe, his flaue, Or any thing which is not thine.

A Prayer. The spirit of grace grant vs O Lord, To keepe thefe lawes our hearts reftore, And cause vs all with one accord, To magnifie thy name therefore.

For of our felties no strength we haue, To keepe these lawas after thy will.

Thy might therefore O Christ we craue. That we in thee may them fulall.

Lord for thy names fake grant vs this, Thou are our flrength O Saujour Christ, Of thee to speed how should we misse,

In whom our treasure doth consist. To thee for ever more be praile, With the father in each respect, And with the holy fpirit alwaies, The comforter of thine elect. The Lords Prayer.

Vr Father which in heauen art, and mak'st vs all one brotherhood: To call vpon thee with one heart, Our heavenly Father and our God, Grant we pray not with lips alone, But with the hearts deepe figh and grone.

Thy bleffed name be fanctified,

Thy holy word might vs inflame: In holy life for to abide: To magnific thy holy name.

From all errours defend and keepe The little flocke of thy poore theepe.

Thy kingdome come euen at this houre, And henceforth cuerlastingly, Thine holy Ghollingovspoure, With all his gifts most plenteously. From Satans rage and filthie band, Defend vs with thy mighty hand. Thy will be done with diligence, Like as in heaven, in earth alfo:

In trouble grant vs patience, Thee to obey in wealth and woe. Let not flash, blood, or any ill, prenaile against thy holy will.

Gine vs this day our daily bread, And all other good gifts of thine: Keepe vs from warre and from bloodfhed, Also from ficknesse death and pine,

That we may line in quietnesse, Without all greedy carefulnesse. Forgine vs our offences all, Relecue our carefull confeience, As we for give both great and small, Which vnto vs haue done offence.

Prepare vs Lord for to ferue thee, In perfect loue and vnitie.

The Creed.

O Lord into temptation, Lead vs not when the fiend doth rage, To withstand his invasion, Giue power and strength to enery age, Arme and make strong thy feeble hoaft, With faith and with the holy Ghoft.

O Lord from cuill deliuer vs. The daies and times are dangerous, From cuerlasting death sauc vs.

And in our last need comfort vs. A bleffed end to vs bequeath.

Into thy hands our foules receive. For thou O Lord art King of kings,

And thou hast power ouer all: Thy glory shineth in all things, In the wide world vniuerfall.

Amen, let ir be done O Lord, That we have praide with one accord.

And in like maner I beloeue, In Christ our Lord, his Sonne: Coequal! with the deitie. And man in flesh and bone:

Conceined by the holy Ghoft, His word doth nie affure . And of his mother Marie borne, Yet she a Virgin pure.

Because mankind to Satan was, For finue in bond and thrall, He came and offered up himfelfe,

To death to faue vs all. And fuffering most grieuous paine,

Then Pilace being ludge, Was crucified on the Croffe, And thereat did not grudge.

And so he died in the flesh, But quickened in the spirit: His body then was buried, As is our vie and right. His spirit did after this descend, Into the lower parts:

Of them that long in darknesse were,

The true light of their hearts.

And in the third day of his death, He rose to life againe: To the'nd he might be glorifide, Out of all greefe and paine. Ascending to the heavens high, To fit in glory still:

On Gods right hand his father deare, According to his will. Vatill the day of judgement come,

When he shall come againe: With Angels power, yet of that day, We all be vncertaine. To judge all people rightcoufly, Whom he hath dearely bought:

The liuing and the dead also, Which he hath made of nought. And in the holy spirit of God,

My faith to fatisfie, The third person in trinitie, Beleeue I stedtastly.

The holy and Catholike Church, That Gods word doth maintaine: And holy Scripture doth allow: Which Satan doth difdaine.

And also I doe trust to haue, By Icsus Christ his death: Release and pardon for my finnes, And that onely by faith. What time all flesh thall rife againe,

And see him with their bodily eyes,

Before the Lord of might:

Which now doe give them light. And then shall Christ our Saujour, The sheepe and goates divide:

And give life everlaftingly, To those whom he hath tride. Within his Realme celestiall, In glory for to rest:

With all the holy companie, Of Saints and Angels bleft.

Which ferve the Lord omnipotent, Obediently each houre:

And as the mill with violence,
did teare it out fo finall:
And made it like to earthly dust,
not sparing it at all.

And as the Ouen with fire het, did close it vp in heate: And all this done that I have said, that it should be our meate.

So was the Lord in his ripe age, cut downe by cruell death: His foule he gaue in torments great, and yeelded up his breath.

Because that he to us might be,
an euerlasting bread:

With much reprochand troubles great, on earth his life he led: And as the grapes in pleafant time, are preffed very fore: And plucked downe when they be ripe, and let to grow no more.

The inice whereof doth saue all those,
that rightly doc him feare.

And as the cornes by vnitie,
into one loafc are knit:
So is the Lord and his whole Church,
though he in heauen fit.
As many Grapes make but one wine,
fo fhould we be but one:
In faith and loue, in Chrift aboue,
and ynto Chrift alone.
